

Learn For Sound Decision Making

CORPORATE FINANCE

February 15-March 2, 2016

Every Monday & Wednesday

6:30 pm to 9:00 pm

At IBA City Campus

KEY FEATURES

- * Investment decisions
- * Capital structure
- * Dividend policy
- * Debt financing policy
- * Mergers
- * Takeovers
- * Agency cost

BENEFITS

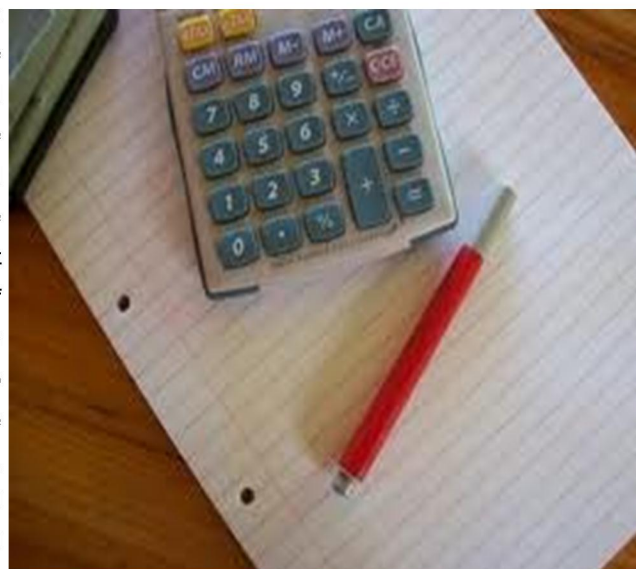

- * Financial planning
- * Corporate image building
- * Project costing
- * Targeted growth

AUDIENCE

- ◆ Creditors
- ◆ Investors
- ◆ Investment bankers focusing on mergers & acquisition
- ◆ Costing & budgetary planning personnel
- ◆ Financial Consultants
- ◆ Senior management
- ◆ Corporate Finance Personnel
- ◆ Entrepreneurs

OVERVIEW

This course has been designed to facilitate planning, preparing and proceeding with the Corporate Financial decisions. Aim of the course is to highlight various aspects of Corporate Finance which have to be taken in to consideration while acquiring projects, mergers, capital budgeting and financial structuring.

This course has been segmented into six broad categories in order to cover various aspects of Corporate Finance. As finance is a core element of any budgetary projections for futuristic corporate approach this course will be very helpful in due diligence, performance assessment, analysis for investors as well as creditors, evaluation of future outlook, cash cycle assessment in consideration to budgetary forecast, etc. Through this course appraisal of diverse phases of Corporate finance will be facilitated against small amount of investment.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- ⇒ Analyze firms' investment decisions.
- ⇒ Discuss firms' choice of capital structure.
- ⇒ Examine key issues related to dividend policy.
- ⇒ Implications of dividend policy for the value of the firm.
- ⇒ Critically assess the reason behind mergers and acquisition.

Skills Development Program

Adding Skills to Experience