PROGRAM OVERVIEW

International trade remains a key driver of Pakistan's economic growth, linking local producers to regional and global markets. Businesses engaged in exports and imports must navigate trade regulations, documentation, logistics, financing, and cross-border risk, while responding to changing global trade dynamics.

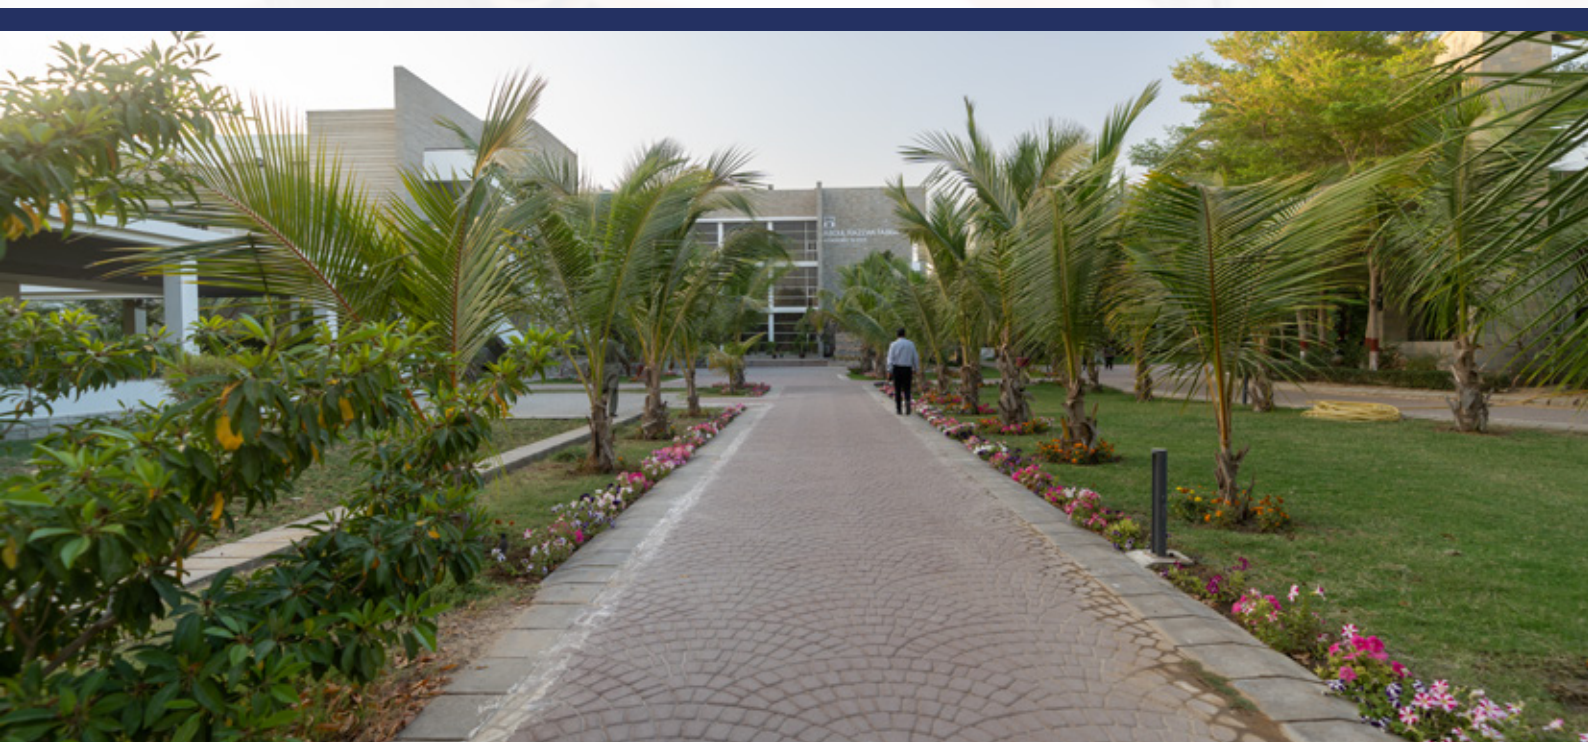

The Diploma in International Trade is designed for professionals who seek a structured understanding of trade processes, enabling them to manage international transactions, comply with regulations, and support trade-driven growth.

PROGRAM COVERAGE

Key areas covered in the diploma include:

- Overview of Global and Regional Trade Environment
- Pakistan's Trade Policy, Agreements, and Regulatory Framework
- Export and Import Procedures and Documentation
- Customs, Tariffs, and Trade Compliance
- Trade Finance, Payments, and Risk Management
- Logistics, Freight Forwarding, and Incoterms
- Trade Disputes, Claims, and Resolution
- Emerging Trends in Regional and Global Trade

The curriculum integrates local regulatory realities and regional trade practices, supported by applied frameworks and practical discussion.
