Leadership and Ideas for Tomorrow

Diploma in Strategic Marketing

Marketing for Corporate Excellence

Overview

Marketing leadership is about mobilizing the organization internally so that it keeps improving, innovating, adapting and delivering while externally focusing relentlessly on customer needs.

Diploma in Marketing will help those who want to attain corporate leadership through Marketing!

Marketing is Demand management. Selling at a profit! Understanding customer needs. And full filling them through Products & Services. This is achieved through an ongoing communication exchange-regular and consistent-to build a trust. Which eventually creates loyalty and repeat customers for brands.

It will unveil strategies for deeply understanding consumers through Advance Consumer Behavior building strong brands with Brand management, delving into the fastest growing digital and social media marketing and the glamour of Advertising.

Spanning over 4-months, the Diploma will have week-end classes only on Saturday & Sundays.

Topics Covered

1. Advance Consumer Behavior

Understanding market Dynamics is being the main focus for all industries particularly FMGCs and pharmaceuticals. A diverse and fascinating array of factors influence even the simplest buying decisions. The driving forces behind why customers buy from you-or OPT for a competitor's products-can empower you to reach key consumers. In this course, we take a deep dive into the internal and external forces that influence consumer behavior. We would learn the importance of consumer behavior in helping us understand when, why, and how purchasing decisions are made. How factors such as color, shape, and sound influence our preparation of brands and products. Gender identity and products geared towards different segments, as well as how consumers lifestyle, values, and attitudes affect products preferences. We would also go into external influences on consumer behavior, covering how groups make decisions and how ideas spread. Finally, exploring the role emotion plays in purchase decisions, how you can structure messages to maximize persuasion.

Topics include

- Priming & Conditioning behavior
- Somatic Markers
- Personality and brand image
- Creating a community through Brands
- Retailing, Merchandising & Shelf placements
- Fetishism & metaphoric marketing
