PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Taxation in Pakistan has become increasingly complex, with frequent changes in tax laws, documentation requirements, compliance procedures, and enforcement practices. Businesses and professionals are expected to understand tax implications across operations, transactions, and strategic decisions, even when taxation is not their primary specialization.

The Diploma in Taxation is designed to provide participants with a structured and practical understanding of Pakistan's tax system, enabling them to manage compliance, reduce risk, and support informed financial and business decision-making.

PROGRAM COVERAGE

Key areas covered in the diploma include:

- Overview of Pakistan's Taxation System
- Income Tax Law: Individuals, Associations, and Companies
- Sales Tax and Federal Excise (Overview)
- Withholding Taxes and Advance Tax Regimes
- Tax Returns, Documentation, and Compliance
- Audits, Assessments, and Dispute Resolution
- Tax Planning Principles and Ethical Considerations
- Recent Developments and Practical Issues in Taxation

The curriculum emphasizes practical application and compliance realities, supported by regional case discussions and examples relevant to Pakistani businesses.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This program is suited for:

- Finance, accounts, and audit professionals
- Business owners and entrepreneurs
- Tax consultants and advisors
- Managers involved in financial decision-making
- Professionals interacting with tax authorities and regulators

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion, participants will be able to:

- Understand and comply with Pakistan's tax requirements
- Identify tax implications in business transactions
- Support better financial planning and documentation
- Reduce compliance risks and penalties
