

Public Policy

(PUP)

Program Overview

Today's world needs a new generation of leaders who are driven to find the best solution to society's problems. PGD in Public Policy is a well-structured program designed to equip participants with skills and knowledge necessary to tackle real world problems and make immediate impact on community. It also provides rigorous training in the analytical frameworks and methods to evaluate government policies and assess their efficiency and impact on society.

Learners in PGD in Public Policy will

- Gain skills that lead to targeted evidence-based decision making
- Ability to evaluate social political and economic situations from different perspectives
- Understand key contemporary issues in public policy
- Techniques for conducting policy analysis
- Analytical and problem-solving skills
- Teamwork

Program Outcomes / Learning Outcomes

1. Knowledge of Core Disciplines	Students will be able to demonstrate understanding of theory and practice in relation to economics and public policy relevant functions.
2. Global Mindset	Students will develop an appreciation of global best practices and learn to adapt them to local contexts.
3. Critical Thinking	Students are able to develop a critical approach in theory and practice leading to effective policy decision making.
4. Communication Skills	Students will be able to communicate effectively in wide variety of policy settings, employing mediums such as written, oral and visual.
5. Ethics	Students will have an understanding and awareness of the ethical implications of their policy decisions.

Who Should Apply?

- * Management level Executives wanting to enhance their skills in the public policy area
- * Public service professionals, people working in think tanks, NGOs, government and public lawyers
- * Graduates interested to pursue a profession in Public Policy
- * Entry and mid-level policy advisors, analysts