PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

In Pakistan (as in the rest of the world) most businesses are Family Managed Businesses (FMB). As anyone familiar with the business landscape would know; Family can be an asset, as well as a liability for the Business, and vice versa. The course sheds light on Why and How a Family can be an asset for Business; and at the same time the Business can be an asset for Family, as well.

COURSE OUTLINE

- Introductory Session
- Terms & Definitions in Family Managed Business
- Strengths of Family Managed Businesses
- Ownership Dimensions
- Take-home Readings
- Managing Professionals
- Succession Planning
- Tacit Knowledge vs. Scale Economics
- Strategic Split
- Governance and Family Constitution
- Family Constitution Exercise & Presentations

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Why a Family is an asset for a Business, and When does it become a liability?
- What are the different Family Business Typologies, and the challenges a Family Business faces during transition between them?
- When is it better for the family to stick together during a family transition, and when to undergo a strategic split?
- How, What and When should a family plan for successful succession?
- What Professionalizing a Business and a Family mean, and How to go about doing it?
- How to begin drafting a Family Constitution?

IBA's Family Managed Business Program has been a turning point in my life. I have gained a lot of knowledge and experience through the advice of faculty and industrial visits.
