Workshop on Best Practices in Internal Auditing

December 19 & 20, 2023

IBA City Campus

Program Overview

Internal Audit has transitioned from a mere compliance role to a strategic partner in achieving organizational objectives. Secondly, technological integration has become pivotal for efficiency gains and data-driven decision-making in audit implementation. On the other hand, effective communication, collaboration and stakeholder engagement are vital for successful audit outcomes and organizational synergy.

Therefore, continuous learning and adaptation have become indispensable for audit and compliance professionals. This transformative 2-day workshop does just that by delving into areas such as strategic importance of internal audit, risk mitigation, and compliance; stakeholder engagement and communication; and ethical considerations and professional conduct. The workshop will take an interactive approach, using tools such as case studies, and group exercises to encourage practical application of concepts. Participants actively engaged in real-world scenarios, encouraging dynamic problem-solving and critical thinking.
